Dear Sir:

I was very glad to receive your letter accepting the Corresponding membership in this Society.

You spoke in your letter about becoming a life member. You could do so at any time should you so desire, by paying the life membership fee of $[illegible] Corresponding Membership is entirely complimentary & I am very sorry that I cannot say

I am sorry that I cannot send you a copy of our Constitution and By-laws but our stock is entirely exhausted, We expect to have some more printed and when we do I will send you one.

Very truly yours

J. Hammarskold Peterson
Recording Secretary.
